A. Overview:
1. The PALS Grades 2 – 6 Reading program advances decoding and word identification, fluency, and comprehension of narrative texts for second through sixth grade students. The activities center around peers providing immediate feedback to each other in pairs.
2. The comprehension activities at second-grade introduce students to critical reading strategies that are often used by successful readers, including paragraph summaries and predicting future text.
3. For third through six-grade students, the PALS program continues to advance fluency and comprehension strategies through the introduction and application of three activities: Partner Reading with Retells, Paragraph Shrinking, and Prediction Relay.
